

Clinic with Barb Armata for Novice and Open

August 1 & 2. 2020

Barbara Armata and NEBCA are happy to announce a clinic to be held Saturday August 1st and Sunday August 2nd at Taravale Farm located in Esperance New York. Start time will be 8am each day.

The clinic will accommodate 10 handlers, to be divided in the novice and open class level. 5 handlers at the novice level (which includes, novice pronovice and ranch) and 5 open competitive level handlers. All registrants, including auditors) must be NEBCA members at the time of registering. Should the clinic not fill it will be open to non members. Auditors are welcome. We will limit auditors to 3 .

If more than 10 handlers enter we will have a draw . Those on a waiting list will be given priority should another session be offered.

Novice handlers will be able to work on anything while Open handlers will be able to work on a Double Lift. Novice handlers may be used to assist with the Double Lift. Each handler will work a dog twice each day and may alternate dogs within their class level.

All CDC COVID guidelines and NYS guidelines will be followed . Please be aware that currently there is a travel ban in NYS so registrations may be limited. Hand sanitizer and cleaning supplies will be available. A porta pottie will be available on site with cleaning supplies to be used after each use.

If you do not feel well please stay home.

We ask that each handler bring their own lunch and beverages for the day. We will not be able to provide coffee or pot luck as in past practice. There are a few stores in the area where you can purchase food. Please bring you own shade.

Fees: Working spots are $90 per day or $180 for both days.

Auditors are $30 per day

Camping is available , no hookups. Bring water for you and dogs.
